Re: Mt. Hawley Ins. Co. v. Pink Donuts, LLC d/b/a Pink Love Donuts and More (Civ. Action No.: 1:23-cv-00708-VSB)

Our File: 514254

Dear Judge Broderick:

This firm represents plaintiff Mt. Hawley Insurance Company ("Mt. Hawley"). We submit this letter jointly with defendant Pink Donuts, LLC d/b/a Pink Love Donuts and More ("Pink Donuts").

This is an insurance declaratory judgment action related to an underlying bodily injury suit in Florida state court. A settlement in principle has been reached in the underlying action. The parties to this action have agreed to file a Rule 41 stipulation of dismissal of this action once the underlying settlement has been completed and executed.

If the Court is amenable, the parties respectfully request a 90-day adjournment of the July 15, 2024 conference in this action in contemplation of the stipulation of dismissal. The reason the parties request 90 days is that the underlying settlement involves an infant and will therefore require formal approval by the court in that action. For the same reasons, the parties would respectfully ask for an adjournment instead of an order dismissing the case subject to a 30-day window for leave to move to reopen.
